Lyrical Lessons with Nita Smith and Jasmine Fripp

"You are also responsible for giving your kids the freedom to dictate how their interest and the essence of who they are inclusive to culture, will shine through within your classroom."

"Along with George Washington, offer us an Angela Davis."

"Do not put Black and Brown kids in a box. Do not pander. Do not overthink. Be Yourself."

"This pulls in the current generation to something they can relate to." "They love our culture, but not us."

"We had to talk about some really tough terms, racism, sexism, misogyny, and I gave them the definitions and then I had them use food to depict exactly what these words are."
